GENERAL SCHEDULE TERMS

1. Incorporation: Schedules A and B form part of the Agreement once duly approved and incorporated by the Parties.
2. Ownership: Nothing in either Schedule transfers copyright ownership to PHD. The Artist or other lawful owner retains ownership as identified in the applicable register.
3. Scope of control: PHD's distribution, management and exploitation authority is limited to the Masters accepted under the Agreement and remains subject to its duration, approval requirements and other terms.
4. Changes: Additions or material changes to a Master's ownership, rights status or scope must be documented in writing and approved in accordance with the Agreement.
5. Conflicts: If a Schedule conflicts with the main Agreement, the main Agreement prevails unless the Parties expressly agree in writing to vary the relevant provision.
6. Records: Each Party shall retain relevant approvals, licences, clearances and expenditure records in accordance with the Agreement and applicable law.
